

One Bright Day

♩ = 96

Gale Palmer

One day in dark - est deep; The Voice of One day in gar - den sweet, The wo - man
One morn - ing dark and grim, In pay - ment
One Morn - ing bright and fair, A Trum - pet

God did speak; And light be - came the won - drous came to meet, Temp - ta - tion's ser - pent of - 'ring for our sin, God's Pre - cious Son be - came the sound - ing clear, Will call the saints of earth to glor - y of Cre - a - tion's Dawn! Be - twixt the her for - bid - den fruit to eat! The temp - ter sac - ri - fice that cleansed all men! E - ter - nal rise to meet Him in the air! We'll say no boil - ing seas, In God's own im - age breathed;

had his way, Con - demnd by sin that day, Life for those, who God's for - giv - ness chose;
fond good - byes, There'll be no earth - ly ties,

Ad - am be - came a man; It was God's Plan.
Death then be - came for man, The on - ly way!
He's pro - mised to re - ceive, All who be - lieve!
We'll have no need to stay, On that Bright Day!