When we of - ten ask, "God, Why?" And the an - swer pas - ses by Then we feel a - lone
As we jour - ney through our life, it is full of toil and strife, and we begin to wan -
When we think we walk by faith, and then of - ten strive and hate, fight - ing sin and lust
If you trust and then o - bey in the face of come what may you will find a peace in mis - er - y and pain: As we wan - der 'neath the stars, and we see but pris - on bars, der "round in deep des - pair: Then we go to church and pray, and we won - der day by day through - out the night and day, There's the bit - ter - ness and lies, of - ten caus - ing faith to fly, that brings you hap - pi - ness! And your joy will ov - ver - flow as your path - way on - ward goes, then we pray, "Dear, God, why can - not I ex - plain?" If you can not read God's mind, just read His mes - age:

why it seems that God will nev - er an - swer prayer.
then we feel a - lone to wan - der in the fray.
you will walk with God in bliss - ful bles - sed - ness!

It is writ - ten down in sim - ple black and white: If you can - not read God's mind, just read His mes - age
