

"And What Will Ye Do In The Day Of Visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? To whom will ye flee for help? And where will ye leave your glory?" Isaiah 10:3 KJV

Men argue, deny, and defy the Truth, pompously elevating themselves; strutting vainly, like peacocks! "Because that, when they knew God, they glorified Him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools." They dole out awards for all manner of earthly achievements. "They that forsake the Law (God's Word) praise the wicked." Jesus is relegated to the realm of myth and legend; mocked, disdained, and neglected in preference to physical pleasure; vain philosophy is elevated to the status of absolute Truth. They label any who say otherwise as weak, ignorant, and needy. "Who changed the Truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, Who Is Blessed Forever. He hath said in his heart, 'I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity.' His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity." By the Living God, if loving, believing, and needing Jesus makes me an "undesirable," then I am Blessed to be so recognized! "God forbid that I should glory, save in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, By Whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more Exceeding And Eternal Weight Of Glory; while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen Are Eternal. I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the Glory Which Shall Be Revealed in us." Unregenerate men, prisoners of their own flesh and lust, would not be freed from their chains for they see them as beneficial. "The god of this world (Satan) hath blinded the minds of THEM WHICH BELIEVE NOT, lest the Light of the Glorious Gospel of Christ, Who Is The Image of God, Should Shine unto them." Like blind men with an elephant, the world marvels at false perceptions. It is only when we cry, "Jesus, Thou son of David! Have mercy on me!" that we are healed, and the beauty already surrounding us becomes visible. Washing daily in Truth clears our vision and many other exciting things appear. We'll be mocked and Satan will flood our mind with bewilderment until God Himself finds us and asks, "Dost thou believe on the Son of God?" Has that question ever prodded you? If you would truly know Christ, ask with the blind beggar, "Who is He, Lord, that I might believe on Him?"

When Glory breaks in eastern sky,
Men for mountains then will cry,
To fall and hide them from God's face,
But where to run there'll be no place! –CGP

Some are content to remain quietly with the blind, but if we persist in proclaiming this Truth, "One thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see," we'll be driven out. "Those that live Godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution." Are the ungodly comfortable, living with you? "If ye suffer for Righteousness' Sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled: But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the Hope That is in you." Liars and pleasure seekers will rue their existence "In The Day Of Visitation." When Christ returns, "what will ye do?" Are you ready?

"And He Said unto me, 'My Grace Is Sufficient for thee: for My Strength Is Made Perfect in weakness.' Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the Power of Christ may Rest upon me." 2 Corinthians 12:9 KJV
