

"Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these Things That Shall Come upon thee." Isaiah 47:13 KJV

The National Hurricane Center knows that “predicting” is one thing, and “avoiding” is another. The stars may very well tell the future, but how does that help avoid it? Even escaping earth by spacecraft will not prevent God’s Judgment. So what if you know the time of your death. Does that stop its occurrence? Prognosticators do not alleviate stress, they cause it. I’ve read the last chapter of the Book of Truth, and I know the future. Astrologers have practiced for millennia, but what have they improved? Dabblers in the occult consort with evil angels whose goal is to destroy mankind, but what outcomes have they improved? Mediums and witches “talk to the dead,” but do they really? Demons have a front row seat to all you do, even in secret, and you think they would not use that knowledge to deceive and manipulate unbelievers to their own destruction? Vain men and silly women acquire fame by consorting with devils they believe to be the dead. Hitler spent fortunes searching for supernatural power, but where is he? He died cowering in his own grave and is now forever dead. “There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.” Evil angels deceptively grant supernatural abilities to a few to control many. Simon the Sorcerer wanted to purchase the Holy Spirit’s Power, as if God could be bought and sold. “But there was a certain man, called Simon... used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria...to whom they all gave heed...they believed Philip preaching the...the name of Jesus Christ...Simon himself believed also...when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles’ hands the Holy Ghost Was Given, he offered them money, saying, ‘Give me also this Power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.’ But Peter said unto him, ‘Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the Gift of God may be purchased with money. Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the Sight of God.” The greatest power available to men has already Been Purchased and Proffered by Jesus Christ; Eternal Life and Peace! “As many as received Him, to them Gave He Power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His Name: The Spirit Itself Beareth Witness with our spirit, that we are the Children of God: And if Children, then Heirs; Heirs of God, and Joint-Heirs with Christ.” Men grasp at straws of necromancy, money, power, and a myriad of other things to avoid submitting to the Truth. They foolishly reason they can do it another way, because “the god of this world (Satan) has blinded the minds of them which believe not.”

You well may know the things to come,
But cannot keep them from your home,
The surest way to safely live,
Is in the Truth of God believe. –CGP

Satan is happy to offer alternatives to foolish men as they scramble to avoid the Sure Judgment of God. “The heavens declare the Glory of God.” God Is Going to Laugh at them. They will stand convicted fools too late in the Day of Judgment! Trust your life to a fool and get a fool’s reward!

“The fool hath said in his heart, ‘There is no God.’ They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good.” Psalm 14:1 KJV
