

“The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.” Psalm 19:7 KJV

Authors of popular books often hold “book signings” where they personally endorse their own work. God writes His perfect law on the tables of men’s hearts with the quill of faith, and His Spirit indwells each believer, endorsing His work. “Faith cometh by hearing...the Word of God. The anointing which ye have received of Him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is Truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in Him. Greater is He that is in you than he which is in the world.” Signed, sealed, and delivered, the saint is assured by the very whispers of the the “Spirit of Truth. He will guide you into all Truth: for He shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever He shall hear, that shall He speak: and He will shew you things to come.” The Everlasting Father holds us close as we read His Word and guides our thoughts with unwavering precision. There are not many ways to interpret God’s Word except for those who wish to rationalize their sin and continue therein. God’s Word interprets itself plainly. There are no errors of interpretation if we let Scripture dictate doctrine. Doctrine wrapped in Scripture is almost always heresy. Scripture is the foundation of doctrine not the other way around. Any heresy wrapped in Scripture can seem to be right until fully studied. Most heresies will use the same verses over and over. If it’s Truth, it will be borne out by the whole of Scripture not just selected parts. Most often the argument is, “That was a different day and age!” God’s Word says, “Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today, and forever.” In a word, it’s “unchanging.” Neither time nor circumstance changes Truth. Gravity is the same today as when God created it. Light and dark are still separate. God still insists on Holiness and purity. His Law is perfect. It hasn’t morphed into some situational ethics course. Unless redeemed by the Blood of the Lamb, “The soul that sinneth, it shall die.” God said it and that settles it. Men think denying the Truth eradicates its consequences. You can deny all you want, but if you jump off a cliff without a rope or chute, you will die! If you die unbelieving in your sins, you will burn in Hell! God’s Grace has mitigated our penalty and purchased our redemption from the consequences of our lawlessness. “We are bought with a price.” We are not our own. We are realigned through faith to our original state and purpose which is to glorify and please our Creator by loving and trusting Him. “Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.” We were not created for self-pleasure, but for God’s pleasure. That’s why you can never please yourself no matter how hard you try. Many perish in the effort. Satan has deceived multitudes into believing that they can find happiness outside of faith in God. I’ll let you in on a secret, “IT IS A LIE!” Any gold is fool’s gold if you put your faith in it.

God’s perfect Law converts the soul,
By making all our fragments whole,
If we remain close by His side,
Then He will make us truly wise. -CGP

There is no substitute for Truth. Sometimes it’s cold and windy on the Rock of Truth, but it will never give way beneath your feet, even in the fiercest of storms.

“For ever, O LORD, Thy Word is settled in heaven. Thy faithfulness is unto all generations: Thou hast established the earth, and it abideth. They continue this day according to Thine ordinances: for all are Thy servants.” Psalms 119:89-91 KJV
