

*“Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. I Can Do All Things Through Christ which strengtheneth me.”
*Philippians 4:11-13no2 KJV

The other side of this coin is, “I can do all thing through lust which weakeneth me.” Believers are granted the Light and sight to choose the Liberty of Truth; or not. All action has consequence. Good or bad depends on the choice. Did you ever decide to put something in your mouth and immediately regret it? By making a choice and acting accordingly, we effectively kill all other options. You can’t un-DO an action, unless you time travel, because as soon as it’s done it is in the past. You can re-DO, repent of, an action and thereby achieve a different consequence. I can either choose God’s Way or my way with every choice. The consequence is predetermined.

“For if ye live after (choose) the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify (kill) the deeds of the body (lust), ye shall live.” Every choice I make is literally Life or death. Jesus is the Word of God, the Spirit of Truth, and the Light of men. He said, “I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life.’ In Him was Life and the Life was the Light of men.” God’s Word is the “Light unto my path.” It gives me the option of Life, whereas, before faith I had no options. “He that believeth not is condemned already.” In the dark there 360 degrees of choice for which way you go, because in the dark, you can choose, but have no assurance of consequence. But with light you have options. Your choice is still your own, but why would a one healed of blindness wear a blindfold? “There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death. The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.” Only a fool would walk in the dark carrying a flashlight. “The entrance of Thy Words giveth Light. But if we walk in the Light (obey the Word), as He IS...the Light, we have fellowship (common interest) one with another, and the Blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin.” Two cannot walk together unless they have a common destination.

It’s yes or no, I choose the which,
God’s Word the Light, my choice the switch,
I can obey or disobey,
The Word is Light upon my way. –CGP

If I’m working on the carburetor, I don’t look under “exhaust manifold” in the auto repair manuel. Every choice is either right or wrong. God’s Word is the Concordance of Right. Learn it!

“Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, Rightly dividing the Word of Truth.” 2 Timothy 2:15 KJV
